LO: To write my Fantastic Mr Fox story.

You need to have your plan from yesterday. You are going to be writing your story- start with your own title e.g. Marvellous Mr Monkey.

- You need to write in paragraphs
- You should spend about 45 minutes writing (but be sure to take a break in the middle)
- You should include descriptive language (adjectives, similes)

Have a look at Miss Campbell's introduction to get some ideas (look at the descriptive language) and then use the resources below to help up-level your writing.

Miss Campbell's introduction of mean characters

Deep in the centre of the city, was the brilliant Bristol Zoo. And in that zoo, there were three despicable zoo keepers. All three of them were as nasty as any man you could imagine. Their names were keeper Boris, keeper Dunce and keeper Dean. Boris was a giraffe keeper, he was enormously tall and twice as fat. When he walked, the ground of the zoo shook and the animals hid. Dunce was a penguin keeper. He was as short as a stump and just as clever (so not very clever at all!), his face was always red with rage and he spent his days screaming at the poor creatures in his care. He left a pungent stench behind him. This was because, every day he would devour buckets of fish guts, whilst the poor hungry penguins watched. Dean, on the other hand, was a normal looking fellow, average height and weight. However, he was the craftiest of the three, evil in fact. He was a lion keeper, but he spent his days strolling round the zoo making all of the animals miserable. With one exception- Marvellous Mr Monkey.

Up-levelling

Use an online thesaurus such as this one: <https://www.thesaurus.com/>

DO NOT WORRY if you don't finish your story today- take your time, you can always finish it tomorrow. You also don't need to write pages and pages, often less writing means better quality!
