

1. Below are some simple sentences. Add conjunctions to make them more interesting.
- a) Winnie wanted a flying carpet so her sisters bought her one for her birthday.
 - b) The carpet flew through the sky and over the funfair.
 - c) Winnie sat on her broom while she waited for the carpet to land.
 - d) Wilbur jumped onto Winnie's shoulder but he fell off.
 - e) Wilbur went to sleep because he was tired from climbing trees all day.

Add your own verbs and adverbs.

2. Finish the sentences below. Include adverbs in each sentence.
- a) Winnie heard the doorbell so she quickly ran down the stairs.
 - b) The carpet landed swiftly in the garden.
 - c) Wilbur climbed out of the window slowly and jumped on to the carpet.
 - d) Winnie lay in the hammock peacefully and read her book.
 - e) Winnie waved her wand speedily to stop the carpet from flying.

3. Miss Malik has written some sentences about a book but she has not done a very good job of making them interesting. Add adjectives and replace the verb underlined in each sentence to make the sentence more exciting.

a) Winnie got a carpet for her birthday.

Winnie received a soft, colourful carpet for her birthday.

b) Winnie's carpet tipped over the pond.

Winnie's colourful carpet tilted over the large, busy pond.

c) Wilbur spent his morning going up trees and catching butterflies.

Wilbur spent his morning climbing tall, green trees and chasing pretty butterflies.

d) Winnie placed the carpet under the sun.

Winnie laid the carpet under the shining sun.

e) The flying carpet flew up into the sky.

The flying carpet zoomed up into the clear, blue sky.

Write a second sentence to follow on from the sentences given. Include adverbs, fronted adverbials and adjectives to make them more interesting.

Write a short story using the pictures below? Use lots of conjunctions, adjectives, verbs, adverbs and fronted adverbials to make the story exciting.

